

Cabinet, anonymous,
Sweden, 1950s.

Brazilian rosewood and mahogany.

This noticeable mid-century piece is an exquisite example of Scandinavian cabinetmaking. The pattern created by the book matched rosewood veneer on the cabinet's top, front, and sides is exceptional.

The cabinet has two doors with four shelves and eight practically integrated pull out drawers in different sizes. A discrete key elegantly locks away the interior.

H: 136 cm / 4' 5 1/2"

W: 94 cm / 3' 1"

D: 44 cm / 1' 5 1/4"

