Uno Ullberg was one of the most important Finnish architects of the early 1900's, drawing most of his buildings in his home town of Viipuri. During the last years of his life he would also work in Finland's capital Helsinki, until his death in 1944. World-renowned fellow Finnish architect and designer Alvar Aalto would then go on to design his gravestone which can be found at the Hietaniemi Cemetery, Helsinki.
