

Easy chair designed by Nanna Ditzel for Ludvig Pontoppidan, Denmark, 1950s.

H: 75 cm/ 2' 5 1/2"
W: 81 cm/ 2' 8"
D: 75 cm/ 2' 5 1/2"

Exceptionally rare model with a Brazilian rosewood frame.

Woven cane, Brazilian rosewood, and wool cushion.

Provenance: Ludvig Pontoppidan's nephew, thence by descent in the family.

Model presented at The Copenhagen Cabinetmakers' Guild Exhibition at Designmuseum Danmark, 1950.
Literature: Grete Jalk [ed.]: "40 Years of Danish Furniture Design", vol. 3, p. 152.