

Pair of table lamps designed by Hans-Agne Jakobsson
Sweden, 1950s

Brass.

Stamped.

Active between the 1950's and 1970's--in the golden age of Scandinavian design--Swedish interior decorator and furniture designer Hans-Agne Jakobsson is best remembered for his softly glowing, glare-free lighting fixtures, which were inspired by the "organic modern" approaches of Danish lighting master Poul Henningsen and Finnish icon Alvar Aalto. Experimenting with a wide range of materials--including brass, iron, glass, fabric, and wood shavings--Jakobsson mastered both the direction and colour of light. His designs are known for their hidden bulbs and streamlined ornamentation, which created diffused, muted lighting. A prolific career to say the least, his company produced over 2,000 separate Hans-Agne Jakobsson lamp designs.
