

Rug 'Aallokko' designed by Eva Anttila for Kotilieden
Aitta
Finland. 1930's.

Flat weave hand-woven wool.

Eva Anttila was an established Finnish painter in the 1910's, and became known to apply her techniques to textile designs as her main focus after the second world war. This piece is aptly named "Tidal wave", depicting the movement of a body of water.
